

Big feelings
are like storms...
I cannot always stop them,
but I can learn to anchor myself while they pass.

D

DESCRIBE IT

Notice what's happening.

- What am I feeling?
- Where do I feel it in my body?
- What is my brain telling me?

R

RELAX

Help your body feel calmer.

Slow

O

OPTIONS

Now that I'm calmer,
what options do I see?

Think differently:
"It's okay that I made a mistake. I'm still learning."

Ask for help:
"I can ask someone to help me."

Find another way:
"Maybe there's another choice that could work."

P

PICK WHAT I NEED

Choose the best option
and try it.

What will help me
most right now?
